28 U.S.C. § 589b authorizes the collection of this information, and provision of this information is mandatory under 11 U.S.C. §§ 704, 1106, and 1107. The United States Trustee will use this information to calculate statutory fee assessments under 28 U.S.C. § 1930(a)(6). The United States Trustee will also use this information to evaluate a chapter 11 debtor's progress through the bankruptcy system, including the likelihood of a plan of reorganization being confirmed and whether the case is being prosecuted in good faith. This information may be disclosed to a bankruptcy trustee or examiner when the information is needed to perform the trustee's or examiner's duties or to the appropriate federal, state, local, regulatory, tribal, or foreign law enforcement agency when the information indicates a violation or potential violation of law. Other disclosures may be made for routine purposes. For a discussion of the types of routine disclosures that may be made, you may consult the Executive Office for United States Trustee's systems of records notice, UST-001, "Bankruptcy Case Files and Associated Records." See 71 Fed. Reg. 59,818 et seq. (Oct. 11, 2006). ### To help protect you from fraud and scams, you'll no longer be able to send Zelle® payments to recipients originating from social media – such as social media marketplaces or messaging apps

Due to the significant rise in social media scams and to help protect your account, we'll be updating our policies on March 23, 2025, limiting your ability to send Zelle® payments identified as originating from contact through social media. As a result, we may:

- Request details about your payment's purpose and how you made contact with the recipient
- Block or decline payments identified as originating from contact through social media
- Decline payments, restrict your use of Zelle® through Chase or take other actions as described in your account agreement if you do not respond truthfully to questions we ask

The updates to the policy become effective March 23, 2025, and will be outlined in Section 2 of the Zelle® Service Agreement, which may appear as a separate agreement or as an Addendum to the Digital Services Agreement. You can review the new agreements beginning January 23, 2025. Here's how to access them:

- On chase.com, log in to your account, click the Main Menu, then select "Agreements & disclosures."
- On the Chase Mobile® app, go to "Legal information" in Profile & Settings or at the bottom of the home page, then "Legal agreements and disclosures."

If you have questions, please call the number on this statement.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT YOUR ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFERS:

Call us at 1-866-564-2262 or write us at the address on the front of this statement immediately if you think your statement or receipt is incorrect or if you need more information about a transfer listed on the statement or receipt.

For personal accounts only: We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared. Be prepared to give us the following information:

- Your name and account number;
- A description of the error or the transaction you are unsure about, and why you think it is an error or want more information; and
- The amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (or 20 business days for new accounts) to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

For business accounts, see your deposit account agreement or other applicable agreements that govern your account for details.

IN CASE OF ERRORS OR QUESTIONS ABOUT NON-ELECTRONIC FUNDS TRANSFERS: Contact us immediately if your statement is incorrect or if you need more information about any non-electronic funds transfers on this statement. For more details, see your deposit account agreement or other applicable agreements that govern your account.
